1. The Economic Section of the KPD Parteivorstand headed by Albert Stasch, issues special questionnaires to economic enterprises in West Germany. These forms contain questions requiring information on output and stocks of raw material, leading personalities and the financial situation of the enterprises. *
2. The Economic Section of the KPD Parteivorstand allegedly has these forms distributed to the Communist Party informants via the Kreisvorstaende and Betriebsraete (employees councils) and collects the information required through the same channels. After evaluation by the Economic Section of the KPD Parteivorstand, the information is submitted to the SED headquarters in Berlin.
